PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This two-week, three credit, faculty-led program introduces students to the major themes of Russian civilization (language, history, literature, and politics) from the founding of the Kievan State in the late ninth century to the present. Students will visit sites and attend classes in Moscow and St. Petersburg.

Highlights will include presentations at such sites as:

- The Kremlin
- Red Square
- Tretyakov Gallery
- Novodevichy Monastery
- The Hermitage (former Winter Palace)
- Peterhof
- St. Isaac’s Cathedral
