

The London Undergraduate Program Presents a Student Poster Fair on Roots and Ruins: Christianity in the North

The poster fair reviews the historical and religious significance of the places visited on a trip to Northumberland and Yorkshire, sponsored by the Nanovic Institute for European Studies. The trip focused on the origins of Christianity in the North, monastic communities, and the Reformation.

Wednesday, October 15, 2014
7:00 - 8:00 p.m., Trafalgar Hall

with canapés and wine