

You think you want to be a diplomat? Foreign Service 101

Join Notre Dame alumna Deb MacLean (BA '97) to learn all about U.S. Policy and Foreign Service.

Deb is a First Secretary in the U.S. Foreign Service, currently serving as a press officer at the U.S. Embassy in London. This is her fifth overseas assignment. She has been with the U.S. Department of State for over 11 years with previous postings in Amman, Jordan; Riyadh, Saudi Arabia; Copenhagen, Denmark and Abuja, Nigeria. Deb speaks Danish, menu French, and passable Spanish. She is married to Ret. U.S. Army Colonel David MacLean and they are the proud parents of a lovable German Shepherd, Coco. Her interests include photography and travel. Prior to joining the Foreign Service, she worked in marketing and sales positions.
