ADDITIONAL PROGRAM INFORMATION

COURSE DESCRIPTION
An intensive course designed to explore Japan’s rich cultural and business traditions within economic, social, and political contexts. Includes one week of preparation on the Notre Dame campus and two weeks on site in Tokyo, the world’s most populated metropolis, and a city home to more Fortune 500 companies than any other in the world. Course topics include U.S.–Japanese business relations, approaches to business ethics, technology and innovation, and energy and nuclear power, among others.

Several course sessions will incorporate guest lecturers who are experts in intercultural communication, business ethics, and innovation and strategy.
