NDChallenge Suggestion:

Have to study for your midterms? Study at the Hesburgh Library!

More than 50 years ago, President Emeritus Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., dreamed of a new library building that would become the academic heart of the University. Today, the Hesburgh Library remains a centerpiece of Notre Dame's intellectual pursuits and an enduring symbol of the University's commitment to academic excellence. Home to a broad range of services, resources, and spaces, and nearly 200 library faculty and staff, the Hesburgh Library continues to serve as the flagship building of the Hesburgh Libraries system.

Good luck on your midterms!
