

IMPORTANT UPDATES

As the semester is coming to a close, here is some important information. Please, read carefully!

1. Please, make sure you have no outstanding holds on your account. You will not be able to receive grades or a transcript if you have a hold. You can view this in NOVO through insideND. If you have a hold, please contact the appropriate department to resolve it.
2. Return all library books and settle all outstanding charges on your student account! Again you will not be able to obtain a transcript if you still have outstanding balances.
3. If you have 3 or more exams scheduled in one day, you may be able to request to reschedule an exam. You do not have to take 3 final exams in one day! Contact the appropriate department.
4. You can start ordering your transcripts before you depart ND on the website of the Registrar. You should do so, before you leave campus. Since your grades are not yet finalized, please opt for "hold for grades" when requesting your transcripts. This means, they will wait to print your transcripts until all your grades are published. You may pick up your transcript in person once grades are published (if you are still in town) or choose to send it to your home or university address.

If you do not order your transcript before your departure, you will have to order through the "Former Student Transcript Request" form since your NDID and NetID will be deactivated. An additional fee will be charged to you, since you will no longer be an ND student.

NOTE: OUR OFFICE IS UNABLE TO REQUEST TRANSCRIPTS ON YOUR BEHALF!

5. Move out date, for those of you living in the dorms, is Sat May 12th.
